

Matthew Pagano '09 is a pharmaceutical market researcher in New York City. He obtained a Bachelor of Science in Psychology with a minor in French from Lafayette, where he conducted research on the relationship between sexism and chivalry. He also served as Vice President of the Association of Lafayette Feminists, planning and hosting educational campus events about gender equality. He then received a Master of Science in Psychology from Villanova University in 2013, where he was a member of the Graduate Student Council and Academic Policy Committee. He also served as Co-President of the Villanova chapter of Psi Chi, the International Honor Society in Psychology, and presented his research on self-regulated learning at several academic conferences. Matthew has been actively involved in the Lafayette Alumni Association since moving to the New York region in 2014, when he joined the Alumni Admissions Representative Steering Committee and the Executive Committee of the New York City Alumni Chapter. He became Chapter Co-President in 2018, helping plan and host social, cultural, and professional networking events for the New York area alumni of Lafayette and other Patriot League institutions. An enthusiastic advocate of his alma mater, Matthew is delighted to support and contribute to the Queer Archives Project.
