

Bryan Cornel Fox class of 2010 graduate from Lafayette College is a Professional Artist. He expressed his creativity through multiple mediums including poetry, drawing, painting, photography, and sculpture. He has published the collection of poems titled 'The Political Romantic' back in September 2017. He has also had his work featured in the Greenpoint Gallery Salon Show exhibition in June 2018. Bryan has also performed his poetry at venues including but not limited to the Nuyorican Poets Cafe, Word at 4F, The Bowery Poetry Club, and Take the Mic Tuesday put together by the Harlem chapter of the SGI organization in New York City. He has also dedicated his time to his beloved sport boxing and is training to compete in the amateur bouts for fun.