

LAFAYETTE COLLEGE

David Bishop Skillman Library

Easton, Pennsylvania 18042-1797 ♦ TEL 610-330-5151 ♦ FAX 610-252-0370 ♦ www.lafayette.edu

Special Collections & College Archives

Oral History Release Form

I, _____, do hereby make the following provisions for the literary property rights, including copyright, I hold in my interview on _____:

(Check one)

_____ I hereby transfer this work to the public domain. I fully understand that this interview will not be copyrighted by me or by the Archives, but will be placed in the public domain, immediately or by a date which I specify below. This decision is intended to provide maximum usage by future researchers.

_____ I hereby transfer copyright to the Archives for scholarly and non-commercial educational uses. In turn, the Archives grants to me a non-exclusive license for the complete and unrestricted right to reproduce, publish, broadcast, transmit, perform or adapt the interview. Unless otherwise specified below, I place no temporary access restrictions on the Lafayette Archives' use of this interview.

_____ I retain the copyright to this interview and grant a non-exclusive license to the Archives, for distribution to the public for non-commercial, educational purposes, in formats and settings that include, but are not limited to, print and electronic publications, events and exhibitions, internet websites, classrooms, and online. The Archives may direct patrons requesting to use the interview for commercial purposes or purposes not allowed under Fair Use (Section 107, Title 17, U.S. Copyright Code), to the following address:

Temporary Access Restrictions:

I wish to place the following temporary restrictions on public access to the interview (including the recorded interview and subsequent transcripts):

_____ I wish to restrict access to this interview until (date): _____

Participant's signature

Date

Accepted for the Lafayette College Archives

Date