

Alfred C. Dreher, Jr. graduated from Lafayette College in 1965 and entered a career with Travelers Insurance Company in Newark, New Jersey. In 1968, after the death of his father, he transferred to the home office in Hartford, Connecticut, and became the care giver for his mother. As an employee in the international department in Hartford, Dreher traveled the globe. After his retirement in 1990s and a long struggle with alcohol, Dreher joined AA and came out as a gay man. He currently lives in an assisted living home in Woodbury, Connecticut, and is celebrating 23+ years of sobriety.
