

Mark Suffredini '93 Biography

Mark graduated from Lafayette College in 1993 with a degree in Psychology and immediately began work as an intern at Shearson Lehman Brothers in Boston. This began his 28 year career at Morgan Stanley, where he has had the roles of Financial Advisor (11 years), Assistant Branch Manager (5 years), and Branch Manager (12 years).

Mark currently leads the Pasadena Sub-Complex, which is comprised of the Pasadena, Claremont, Riverside, and Palm Desert offices of Morgan Stanley in Southern California.

Mark has served as a mentor throughout his career and has been involved in many non-profit organizations. He was honored to receive a 2013 Citizenship Award from Morgan Stanley in honor of his involvement in the community.

Mark has been an active volunteer for Lafayette College. In 2021 he received the George T. Woodring '19 Service Award, which recognizes the achievements of a long-term Alumni Association volunteer whose service is both dedicated and effective. Mark is also a past Chair of Lafayette College's West Coast Advisory Council, a group of west coast alumni who help drive engagement in the areas of career services, development, and admissions.

Mark is married to Dr. Reza Kermani, a general/trauma surgeon. They live in Studio City, CA, with their 9 year old Beagle, Mr. Magoo.
